

Power Lawyers 2020: Hollywood's Top 100 Attorneys

6:00 AM 3/27/2020 by THR Staff and Edited by Ashley Cullins

Forget nine-figure overall deals and exec poaching fights. For the lawyers on Hollywood Reporter's 14th annual power list, a war between writers and agents, collapsing theatrical windows and canceled productions amid a global pandemic are now just another day at the office.

"Our attorneys are an integral part of our process," Dwayne Johnson and Dany Garcia tell THR. "They sit side by side with us as we look at the intricacies involved in all our endeavors and do an amazing job of holding our best interests as their core priority, regardless of the complexities of our deals." From left: Matthew Thompson, Bianca Levin, Garcia, Johnson and Harold Brown were photographed by Donté Maurice March 5 at Atlanta Metro Studios in Atlanta.

At the forefront of the burgeoning esports business, Freedman is representing Turner "Tfue" Tenney, a professional gamer and former member of organization FaZe Clan, in his ongoing dispute over an "oppressive" contract. "It's the Wild West in some respects," says Freedman. "Turner standing up for himself gives everyone else the pause to at least read their contracts closely." Elsewhere he's representing Gabrielle Union in her fight against America's Got Talent over its alleged "racially insensitive" workplace, as well as Megyn Kelly and Jordan Belfort.
